

MANCHESTER V. NEWCASTLE.

Cupholders Manchester City win the toss in their third-round replay with Newcastle United at Maine Road. Newcastle, in the striped shirts, kick off but City take it away. And within a few minutes Stokes, trying to head it clear, puts his own side one down!

A lucky start for the cupholders! Newcastle do their best to even things up with a swift attack on the City goal.

A pass to Alec Tate, who shoots - but Bert Trautmann saves, and throws upfield to start a City attack, which ends with Bobby Johnstone heading a beauty past the Newcastle backs! City two, Newcastle nil.

Paddy Pagan leads yet another Manchester rush - he beats Batty and Simpson - and City are three up!

City fans are jubilant as the second half begins. But Newcastle are fighting back, and when the ref awards them a penalty Tom Casey beats Trautmann, following up to make sure.

City still have a three-one lead, but Newcastle have taken new heart. A City attack is stopped by Batty and Stokes, and the game sweeps back to the City end, where Alec Tate finds the net for Newcastle's second goal.

There's no stopping the Georgies now! With only five minutes to go, a right-wing attack puts the ball at Currey's feet for the equaliser!

So it's extra time - and City fight like demons to win back the advantage. An accurate centre from the wing, and Bobby Johnstone heads magnificently! City 4, Newcastle 3!

But not for long - Len White intercepts a backward pass to score the second equaliser! And within a minute, they're back again, for White to net the deciding goal. Victory for Newcastle, after a brilliant recovery!
