

FIRE CLAIMS TWO CHURCHES!

Syracuse
In freezing weather, fire rages through the First Methodist Church in Syracuse. Latest in a rash of church fires to afflict the East Coast, the blaze is one of the worst. It rages out of control.

With gutted windows themselves providing draft, the fire flames on until the church and adjoining buildings are ruined at a cost of seven hundred thousand dollars.

Montreal
And up in Montreal, the red flames race through the Church of St. Elizabeth of Portugal. Here, too, zero temperatures add to the ordeal of the fire-fighters.

Here, too, winds whip the flames on their devouring path. Damage is counted in the hundreds of thousands. Finally, the fire triumphs as the steeple crashes in flames.
