

IT'S A GIRL!

For days, the whole of Monaco has been behaving like a worried husband - but the good news comes at last, announced by the Palace guns.

Twenty-one rounds - but that's nothing to the rounds that'll be drunk in Monaco tonight. For the pocket state has a princess - Caroline Louise Margurite - heiress to the throne, and a guarantee that for at least another generation Monaco will remain independent, without taxes, without call-up. No wonder Dr. Bernasconi who attended the birth, is a popular man!

Pictures of the baby? We'll have to wait a while for those. According to Princess Grace, she's a redhead. According to the Prince she's very pretty. And according to the people of Monaco, she's something to get lit up about!