

MILLWALL v. BIRMINGHAM.

Millwall, in the white shirts, kick off against Birmingham at the Den - but the visitors are full of the spirit which took them to Wembley last year, and they mean to get their again if they can. They are soon pressing hard on the Millwall goal.

And from a Govan centre, Noel Kinsey heads it home!

Hazlett leads a Millwall counterattack, but Gil Merrick, 's there, and dodges through to clear. Now it's Birmingham on the move again.

Inside left Murphy has it - he passes out to his winger, Alex Govan, Eddie Brown jumps - but it's wide! Undeterred, Birmingham sweep in again...

And they're two up!

That's how it stands at half-time - and Millwall are really in trouble. Birmingham start a neat passing movement upfield.

And Noel Kinsey scores the third!

Soon after, there's a free kick for Millwall - it's headed on - but Gil Merrick holds it safely.

Goalie Lloyd faces another Birmingham onslaught - Brown shoots and there's number four!

No hope for Millwall now - but as a consolation prize, one attack comes off - and Shepherd hooks it in to save his team from a whitewashing!

Huddersfield v. Burnley.

There's a record gate at Leeds Road, where Huddersfield (in the striped shirts are at home to Burnley). Blacklaw, the Burnley goalie, is soon busy - but Fearnley, at the other end, gets his full share of the work, too, as the battle sways back and forth on the snow-covered pitch.

A free kick for Huddersfield - and Adam Blacklaw almost has to fight his way out to clear. The ball goes out to the Huddersfield right wing, but he's tackled by Cheeseborough, who takes it away from him and kicks upfield to set Burnley moving.

But Fearnley's on his toes, and once again the play changes ends. The Burnley backs find the going pretty rough.

Huddersfield take a free kick - Adamson and Hickson both jump for it - Bobby Seith clears, but the Huddersfield left winger collects it.

He centres - and Dave Hickson heads a beauty!

So it's Huddersfield one, Burnley nil at half time. After the break, the Burnley defence manage to hold off the Town's attacks and give their own forwards a chance - and Albert Cheeseborough makes the most of it to equalise!

Now Huddersfield are forced on to the defensive - but some brilliant work by Fearnley saves them for the moment. He takes it away and kicks upfield - and Huddersfield are all out to regain their advantage. Which they very nearly do!

Burnley under attack again - but Adam Blacklaw holds it, and now it looks as though Huddersfield have shot their bolt. Burnley carry the battle into the Town half, struggling like champions for that vital goal and Ian Lawson makes it!

Huddersfield one, Burnley two - and that's how it stays, so victorious Burnley go on to the sixth round!
