TREE GRAFTING
TRICKS NATURE!

Out California way, near Santa Cruz, the celebrated flora takes on some strange twists at the Erlandson Tree Circus. Through the art of grafting, living trees have been transformed into a variety of fantastic shapes.

Everything from a valentine heart to an easy chair formed through the combination of four growing trees. It's a grove full of start~~ling~~ling designs.

They're the work of 75 year old Axel Erlandson who considers this one his masterpiece, an upside down tree with the roots waving in the breeze. That ought to baffle Mother Nature,
