

FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR:

The "Footballer of the Year" trophy, awarded annually by the "Sunday Mail", comes to Kirkcaldy this year - and it's last year's holder, George Young of Rangers, who comes to the microphone to introduce his successor - as if he needed any introduction - Raith Rovers' popular captain, Willie McNaught.

In all his 15 years of a professional footballer, Willie has never been cautioned or reprimanded by a referee - perhaps his wife has trained him too well! Much of the credit for Willie's development must go to his Raith Rovers' associates - but most of it to Willie himself, for the sheer hard work that has made him one of Scotland's finest players.
