CARNIVAL PRINCE AND THE BOY SCOUTS:

To R.A.F. Statfen, Wildenrath, comes the Carnival Prince of Aachen and his court. They are welcomed by local British Scout Commissioner, Flight-Lieutenant Goode - for British boys in Germany are celebrating the Baden-Powell Centenary, and the German youngsters are invited to meet the Scout Commissioner for Western Europe, General Sir Dudley Ward.

You know the old saying - once a Scout, always a Scout - whether you're a boy Prince or a grown-up General.
