MID-LENT CELEBRATION IN SITTARD (SOUTH-LIMBURG)

Length: 46 M.

The bakers in Sittard had extra work to do; many, many so-called "Crescents" were baked, which are distributed to the youth on Sunday Lastare (Mid-lent)

A wagon transported the bread to the Kellenberg, a hill just outside the town.

Formerly the crescents were put away in the brushwood, but now it goes like this..... !

More than 2000 children tried to come as near as possible to the distributors.

As is generally assumed, this national custom is based on the Gospel of the Wonderful Bread-Multiplication.
