Cycling Tour Prague - Berlin (East)

(X. International Peace Tour)

It was an important day in Prague, the capital of Czechoslovakia. For the tenth time teams from East and West started in the gruelling amateur cycle tour Prague - Berlin - Warsaw.

1. Day: Prague to Brünn (224 kms). Winner was the N Swede Axel Ögren.

2. Day: Brünn to Kabor (177 kms). The British ace Britton was the strongest man and won the day.

The tour was a trip into spring, when the field passed over the frontier mountains. But in a few minutes they were in a winterly landscape. The Belgian Louis Proost took the lead and won the day ending in the Karl-Marx-Stadt.

The sixth day went to Leipzig. The CSR-ace Ruzicka led the group and was winner of the day.
