TRUCK ROLLS OVER "HUMAN"
HIGHWAY!

Here's a truck that goes anywhere. At Monterey, California, the 7-ton Rolligon makes its first test run over a rocky terrain that would stop a bulldozer.

Inventor Bill Albee shows his faith in the truck's ultra-low pressure pneumatic roller wheels. The unorthodox vehicle "floats" its load so lightly even a man can stand the pressure. No damage done. A seven-ton toughie with a light touch.
