Gherif HAMIA meets Megan BASSEY of Nigeria, tonight for the World featherweight boxing championship in an all-African contest.

Hamia, an Algerian fights for France and is the European champion in his division. Bassey who has his fistie base in England is the British Empire Champion.

Both fighters have finished their training in Paris, and experts here have been unable to sort out a favorite. Hamia is the sentimental favorite in Paris, but there has been no stampede to pick him to win.
