

Vth. International Festival of Bagpipe players in Brest

Renewing the old custom interrupted by the first world war, when the best bagpipe players used to come to Brest for their annual competition, the organizers of the Festival have invited this time the best players of the old world , among which the Pipe Band 402 of the Light Regiment of Greenock (Scotland) who performed with the usual brio the famous marches of the Highlands.

Different players of the French provinces , Auvergne, Limousin, Provence were represented too and a very sympathetic folkloric group of Czech dancers and singers put a gay note in this traditional fete.
