

News of the Day
September 12, 1957, Vol. 29-207

MAKARIOS REACHES U.S.!

Into foggy New York Harbor comes the liner Queen Frederika with Archbishop Makarios aboard. The exiled religious leader of Cyprus, who once studied at Boston University, is here to further the Cypriot cause before the United Nations. Cyprus seeks to throw off British rule for union with Greece. Charged with terrorist activities by the British, the Archbishop was released recently on condition he would not return to Cyprus.