

STIRLING MOSS WEDS:

At St. Peter's Church in Eaton Square, one of the year's most popular weddings - that of Stirling Moss and Katie Molson. Ushers include Mike Hawthorne, Peter Collins and Peter Jopp. Of course, Stirling himself is never late for anything - so he turns up 25 minutes early. Stirling's sister Pat is one of the three bridesmaids - and here comes Katie herself, with her Canadian father. Katie wears a Norman Hartnell gown of white satin, with a long sweeping train.

There's a minor crisis when someone forgets the confetti - but it arrives in time to greet Mr. and Mrs. Moss as they leave the church.

The Mosses are honeymooning in Holland - but only for four days. Stirling has to be back in London to judge the Miss World contest. And if you're tempted to say: "Some people have all the luck" - well, who deserves it better than Britain's stop driver? Anyhow, the best of luck to both of them!
