BANK RATE TRIBUNAL.

Was there a leak over the Bank Rate increase? To Church House, Westminster, comes Attorney-General Sir Reginald Maudslayi-Buller for the inquiry. Mr. Edward Milner Holland is a member of the tribunal, and Mr. Charles Russell, Q.C., represents a man whose name has been mentioned in connection with the alleged leakage - Mr. Oliver Peole, Deputy Chairman of the Conservative Party. The "leakage" story is said to have originated from a remark by Miss Susan Chatway, sister of the famous runner. From such witnesses, the tribunal seeks to find out what really happened.
