

"NO TIME FOR TEARS" PREMIERE:

When the Variety Club organises the Scottish premiere of the film "No Time for Tears" in Glasgow, "No Time for Tears" is right - for hundreds of happy teenagers turn up to see the stars arrive, and the audience itself is noticeably youthful. Among the many celebrities present are Sir John Campbell and Lady Campbell - and here comes Lord Provost Mr. Andrew Hood with Mrs. Hood. Next, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clarke, followed by the Variety-Club's Chief Barker, Mr. Mike Frankovitch with Mr. MacGregor Scott, Mr. C.J. Latta, and Mr. Nat Cohen. And now Sir Alex and Lady King.

Now the stars - coloured singer Lucille Mapp with Carole Lesley and Magda Miller. Magda's 36 beauty contest victories include the "Miss Scotland" title.

Janette Scott arrives with Alan White, who plays a doctor in the film. They are greeted by Mr. Latta, who is European International Representative of the world-wide Variety Club movement. And now the man half the crowd have been waiting for - teenage hero Tommy Steele. For a Variety Club charity premiere which raises a healthy sum for needy youngsters, stars and celebrities willingly give their time.
