

W.B.A. v. MANCHESTER CITY:

It's dirty misty weather at the Hawthorns when West Bromwich Albion are at home to Manchester City, in the plain shirts. From the kick-off, an early Manchester attack goes wide. Within a few minutes Bobby Johnstone has a near miss - and now the home team start to get into their stride. Left winger Horobin dribbles through.

Sanders saves, and Bwing gets it again. But Albion soon come back; Griffin has it, the battle's carried into the Manchester goalmouth - and Allen scores!

So at half time the Albion boys are one up. The lights are on for the second half, and the home team are soon at it again. Bert Trautmann fights bravely - but even he can't keep Albion at bay for ever - and Allen beats him again!

From now on it turns into a landslide. Albion's offensive - strategy pays off!

Look out - here comes Allen again! - and it all adds up to a 5-1 victory for West Bromwich Albion!
