COMPARINI HOLMES ROMANCE

fly

Little Italian Soldier, 23-year Giulio Comparini is set to ~~leave~~ today to wed his British ailing sweetheart, Shirley Holmes (from Portchester). The romance started last summer, when Shirley Holmes, who was born with a "hole in her heart" spent a vacation at Lido di Camaiore, near Viareggio, where she met Giulio: Giulio was waiting on table at the hotel in which Shirley stayed. They fell in love with each other.

Later Giulio Comparini was to do his obligatory army service and was stationed at the Como 3rd Recruitment Center (CAR).

Now Shirley Holmes had intended to come to Italy to visit Giulio despite doctors' warnings that the trip might be fatal. At this point the Italian Army stepped in.

With unprecedented speed they approved a 30-day leave for Giulio to go to England instead - despite a rule against soldiers leaving the country during their basic service. The Army even got him a passport in double quick time. For such "Operation Lovelorn" Giulio was granted a return ~~what~~ plane ticket to London, and 50,000 lire to cover his board and loading.

The Army was all set to send Giulio off earlier, but couldn't find plane space until today (Monday).

The coverage shows:

- Soldiers in the courtyard of the barracks "De Cristoforia" in Como, setting for ~~grilling~~; inside is Giulio Comparini set to leave.
- A few shots of Comparini with his suit-case, and his fiance's picture, taking leave from his soldier-friends.
- Outside, in the barrack-porch, more greetings of soldier-waiters, with whom he is in charge of the Officer-mess.
- The exit of the barracks
- A few shots of soldier-grilling.

Shots of officers are not allowed

A coverage of Comparini leaving from Milano-Linate Airport will follow.
