

INTERNATIONAL DANCE COMPETITION

Great Britain obtained triumphant victory in the international competition of coupled dancers held in Turin.

The representatives of Holland were compelled to give up at the last moment on account of the competing man's father, who was dying.

Owing to technical reasons, the sound track has not been recorded.

The coverage shows:

- Classification board
- G.U. Orchestra members
- Two judges
- Full shots of the dancing hall
- Various shots of dancing performances

The dancing couples have following entry numbers:
