

RUSSIAN ATHLETES COMPETE:

Top Soviet gymnasts compete for the Moscow Cup - and when champions like Yeryemina perform, it looks more like ballet than gymnastics.

Yeryemina wins the woman's cup - and the favourite for the men's title is Tkachov, from Lvov in the Ukraine. The daring young man on the flying trapeze has nothing on this chap.

Everything that can be done with a horizontal bar, this agile Ukrainian does - plus a few things that just can't be done.

After all that - and the crowd's applause - it's little wonder he wins hands down!
