

SCOTTISH F.A. CUP.

Harry Haddock wins the toss for Clyde, and decides to start with the wind in the Scottish F.A. Cup Final against Hibernian at Hampden Park. Hibs, in the light sleeves, are quickly on the attack, pressing hard on the right wing. This promises to be a battle royal, for both teams have won the Cup twice in their history, and both are determined to bring off the third. But neither side's defence is giving anything away.

Walters and Preston tussle, and Murphy gets it away to left half Mike Clinton. Clinton passes upfield for Walters. But he's beaten to it, Hibs sweep towards the Clyde goal, but Tommy McCulloch manages to clear.

Now the Hibernian end - with slippery Jo Coyle giving the defence a headache. Leslie dives - and McLelland gets it clear.

From head to head - and over the bar.

Now it's Coyle again - he runs on to it and shoots - and it's off Baxter's toe into the net!

So Clyde are one up at half time - and in the second half Hibs battle bravely to even things up. Fraser and Haddock tussle for the ball - and it goes for a corner.

Baker takes it - Aitken heads across - but the Clyde defence holds firm and Currie clears.

Another Clyde attack led by the irrepresible Coyle...

But Leslie sends it over the bar. And now Tommy Ring has a go.

Andy Aitken leads a Hibs offensive - he kicks to Baker, who heads - and it's in! But hard luck Hibs - it's disallowed. Baker handled on the way in!

Undeterred, Hibernian fight on; but McCulloch holds his own.

Free kick for Clyde...

Coyle heads, but it's over. And so the battle sways to and fro, with Hibs doing their best to land that precious equaliser - but Clyde hang on to their lead till the end, and when the whistle blows it's Harry Haddock who receives the Cup from Mr. John Park, President of the Scottish F.A. Well done, Clyde - you earned it the hard way against very determined opponents!
