German Middle Weight Championship Scholz vs Resch

Two punchers in the ring to decide who is the best German middle-weight boxer. Gustav Scholz or "Bubi", the unbeaten champion of 70 fights, who only lost one bout, and the younger Max Resch also with only one lost match.

10.000 fans filled the Westphalia Hall when a thrilling fight began the like of which had not been seen in the past ten years.

Already in the first round left-hand cuts of Scholz caught Resch off guard. He went down till 4 for the first time.

In the second round again an exchange of blows the last of which floored Scholz. But he quickly recovered.

In the third round Scholz continued his left-hand attacks and floored his opponent three times. Resch tumbled to his corner.

Round four saw Scholz in his best world class condition. His left-hand precision blows again floored Resch three times. Then Manager Englert threw the towel into the ring and saved Resch from a still greater strafing.

A further triumph for Bubi Scholz - a good omen for the coming European championship fight Humez vs Scholz.
