J. H. Prendergast, D.S.O., M.C.

The Commanding Officer will invite Her Majesty to take the Royal Salute following which he will invite Her Majesty to inspect the Guard of Honour and escort her to the Guard Commander, Major A. J. Sudlow.

NON-ACCREDITED PRESS

Two NON-ACCREDITED sites will be provided to cover the reception and inspection of the Guard of Honour. One will be on the roof of the public conveniences overlooking the main drive, and the other on the pavement opposite, adjacent to the Royal dais.

- (f) 11.45 a.m. Royal Party will walk from Victoria Park through the Gardens, into the De Montfort Hall, and take up positions on the platform as follows: left to right, Brigadier Prendergast, Lord Plunket, Sir Michael Adeane, Countess of Euston, Lord Mayor, Her Majesty, His Royal Highness, Lady Mayoress, Lord Cromwell, Lady Cromwell, Recorder, Town Clerk, Chief Constable.

After the National Anthem the Lord Mayor will make a short speech of welcome and the Lady Mayoress will present a bouquet to Her Majesty. It is hoped that a copy of the Lord Mayor's speech will be available in advance.

A list of persons to be presented in the De Montfort Hall will be found in Appendix "A"

NON-ACCREDITED PRESS - A site will be provided on the left of the main entrance to the De Montfort Hall.

ACCREDITED PRESS - On entering the Hall the ACCREDITED party will turn right and go upstairs to the balcony where the following seats have been reserved for them: row A 1-7; row B 1-4; row C 1 and 2; and the first seven balcony chairs behind them.

At the end of the ceremony, after the Royal Party has left the platform, the ACCREDITED party will move as quickly as possible to the rear exit of the Hall where the Press cars will be waiting to leave behind the Lord Mayor's car so as to reach the University ahead of the Royal party. This move will have to be carried out in extreme haste.

(P.A./Ex-Tel. to note: Adjacent to this rear exit is a janitor's room with an exchange telephone line. Arrangements have been made with the City Police for a radio link between the airfield and a police car stationed outside the exit. Police will warn interested members of the ACCREDITED Press as soon as the Royal plane has touched down, and P.A./Ex-Tel. correspondents may 'phone their offices from the janitor's room if desired.)

On arrival at the main University Building the party will alight and the Press cars will proceed immediately to the car park under Police direction.

- (g) 12.10 p.m. The Royal Party leaves De Montfort Hall by main entrance. The Guard of Honour will give the Royal Salute and the band will play the National Anthem as the Royal cars move off. The route from the De Montfort Hall to the University will be via Regent Road, University Road, and the main entrance of the University.

- (t) 3.23 p.m. The Royal Party arrives main building of N. Corah (St. Margaret) Ltd. At the main entrance, the Lord Mayor will present the Chairman, Mr. R. L. Wessel.

Mrs. R. L. Wessel will present a bouquet to Her Majesty.

NON-ACCREDITED PRESS - A site will be provided on the tarmac at right of the main entrance to cover arrival. There will be NO NON-ACCREDITED facilities inside the factory buildings, but two outside sites have been arranged along the route. These are detailed as they arise.

ACCREDITED PRESS - During the tour of the factory, escape routes and detours have been arranged for the benefit of ACCREDITED representatives so as to enable them to move ahead of the Royal Party. Corah's will provide four guides for the ACCREDITED party, three to act primarily as guides for photographers, and the fourth as a technical expert able to answer reporters' questions.

On entering the factory Mr. Wessel will escort the Royal Party by the main front staircase to first floor level, through the vestibule (in which will be displayed a 120-year-old hand-frame knitting machine which was originally the property of Mr. Nathaniel Corah (1777-1832), the founder of the firm) to the sample room. Here will be displayed items relating to the history of the firm, including photographs taken on the occasion of the last Royal Visit, of King George V and Queen Mary, in 1919, together with a representative selection of some of the goods manufactured by the Company for home and overseas markets. Mr. Wessel will present:

Sir John Corah, who retired as Chairman of the Company in May, 1957
 Mr. S. F. Peshall, C.B.E., M.C., Chairman of Jaska, Ltd., an associated Company, and who retired from the Board of Messrs. Corahs when Vice-Chairman in May, 1957
 Mr. W. W. Noakes, J.F., Vice-Chairman and Executive Director for Personnel and Finance
 Mr. H. F. Watson, Managing Director
 Mr. A. Brewin, Executive Director for Research
 Mr. T. Arkinstall, Executive Director, Underwear and Footwear Departments
 Mr. F. Chance, Executive Director, Outerwear Department
 Mr. D. Gwillim, Director and Yarn Buyer

The Royal Party will then be escorted on the same floor through a Fully Fashioned Hose Knitting Machine Room, where the manager of the Full Fashioned Stocking Department, Mr. F. F. Main, M.B.E., will be presented. (Mr. Main started work with the Company in 1909, and is Senior Production Manager. He will accompany Her Majesty through the Department, where banks of machines are operated by automatic control.)

The Royal Party will then proceed to Full Fashioned Seaming Department on the floor above, from there on the same level to the Jersey Dress Cutting Room, and then downstairs to the Jersey Dress Machine Room, where the Supervisor, Mrs. H. Cope will be presented. (Mrs. Cope, who started with the firm in 1922, will accompany Her Majesty as she inspects the sewing machinists.)

/The Royal .....

The Royal Party will descend to the main floor level and pass through the Jersey Dress Finishing Room to the Training Centre. There, Miss Lily Kettel, senior representative of the National Union of Hosiery Workers in the works, will be presented. (Miss Kettel, who is now attached to the firm's Work Study Department, began work with the Company in 1935. A trade union worker all her life, she became a member of the National Executive of the Hosiery Workers' Union on its formation in 1946. In 1952 she received the Gold Medal of the T.U.C. as the outstanding woman member of the year.)

In the Training Centre the Royal Party will see methods of training developed by the Company in 1944 and since taken up by industry in many parts of the world.

From the Training Centre the Royal Party will visit the Surgery and then emerge via the Employment Office door on to the green, around which, weather permitting, employees of the Company will be arrayed, with former employees now on the Pension list seated in front.

Mr. Thomas Green, D.C.M., aged 83, who was employed by the Company from 1909 to 1949, will be presented. Before he joined the Company Mr. Green served in the Leicestershire Regiment and was present at the Siege of Ladysmith during the South African War.

NON-ACCREDITED PRESS - A site will be provided on the green facing the Employment Office door.

The Royal Party will then pass through the main archway and a short covered passage to the Knitted Underwear Cutting and Making-up Department. Thence to the Main Cotton-Interlock Knitwear Fabric Knitting Room and into the Jaska Jersey Knitting Department. Miss Jessie Rayner, aged 70, a knitter on Jaska Jersey Fabric, who has been employed with the Company since 1929, will be presented. The party then crosses a small open yard and, if time permits, will enter the new powerhouse. From there they move on to the Continuous Bleaching Room, where will be seen the only machine of its kind in England for the continuous bleaching of cotton interlock fabric. Some four miles of fabric are passing through the machine at one time.

The route then passes through the 1865 part of the factory to the Yarn Winding and Men's Half Hose Knitting Section.

Mrs. Betsy Hayes, aged 71, an Overlocker in the Men's Half Hose Department, who joined the Company in 1906, will be presented.

The Royal Party will finally emerge at the far end of the building for a short walk through the main archway where the cars will be waiting.

Before Her Majesty enters her car she will be presented by the Managing Director with examples of the products of the factory, including nylons for herself and knitted outerwear for H.R.H. and the Royal Children.

NON-ACCREDITED PRESS - Sites will be provided at either side of the main archway to cover the departure.

- (v) 4.32 p.m. Royal Procession arrives at Town Hall, in front of which will be drawn up a contingent from the Royal Navy. In the square behind them will be a Band of the Royal Marines. As Her Majesty's car reaches the left hand man of the Naval contingent, they will present arms. As Her Majesty steps from the car the Band will play the National Anthem.

NON-ACCREDITED PRESS - A site will be provided on the pavement on the right hand side facing the Town Hall main entrance to cover the arrival and departure, and a further site will be provided on the grass in Town Hall Square to cover the subsequent Royal appearance on the Town Hall balcony.

NOTE: It will not be possible for the same representatives to cover both sites.

On entering the Town Hall Her Majesty, His Royal Highness, the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress will retire to the Lord Mayor's suite. The Lord Lieutenant, Lady Cromwell and the remainder of the party, together with the ACCREDITED Press will proceed to the Tea Room.

The Royal Standard will be broken from the Town Hall as Her Majesty enters. While Her Majesty is in the Town Hall the Band will play.

The Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress will escort the Royal Party to the Tea Room, where Her Majesty and His Royal Highness will sign the Visitors' Book, and official photographs on behalf of the City and the Lord Mayor.

/The Lord Mayor .....

The Lord Mayor will present to Her Majesty, on behalf of the City, a silver bowl, designed and made in the City's Colleges of Art and Technology.

The ACCREDITED Press will retire immediately after the presentation of the silver. Tea will be served to the ACCREDITED Press in No. 2 Committee Room on the ground floor to the right of the main entrance. Telephone facilities will be provided nearby.

The Royal Party will then take tea with the Civic party and other guests in the Tea Room. For list of guests see Appendix "E"

- (w) 5.00 p.m. Her Majesty and His Royal Highness will appear on the Town Hall Balcony.

When H. M. appears the Naval contingent will come to attention. When the Queen has left the balcony, they will slope arms.

ACCREDITED PRESS - Members of the ACCREDITED Press wishing to photograph the crowd scenes in the square during the balcony appearance will be able to do so from the open long windows on the main staircase not in use by the Royal Party.

- (x) 5.05 p.m. Her Majesty and His Royal Highness, accompanied by the Civic party, proceed to the main entrance of Town Hall.

- (y) 5.07 p.m. At the main entrance Her Majesty and His Royal Highness will take leave of the Lord Mayor and Lord Lieutenant. When H.M. and H.R.H. have entered their car and the procession is on the move the Naval contingent will give the Royal Salute and the Band will play the National Anthem.

This ends the official visit. H.M. and H.R.H. will not be returning to Leicester East Airport as it is understood they will be spending the weekend privately.
