Dear Mr. Stagg,

As promised this morning, I am now sending you the programme for our Opening Ceremony and a list of those who will form the Platform Party on which I have indicated the country of those from abroad. You will find that the names are not strictly in the correct order of precedence.

I am also enclosing a copy of a letter I have sent to the Assistant General Manager of the Festival Hall asking for facilities for you.

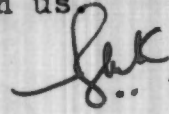

With many thanks for your help and interest,
Yours sincerely,

B.M.Key.

P.S. You may like to know that the name of our Public Relations Officer, whom you met this morning, is Mr. Colin Wintle, and his address 25 Haymarket, S.W.1 (TRAFALGAR 2862). Professor Scarff was, of course, also with us

Dear Mr. Stagg,

This is to confirm that Dr. Roy Ward will be pleased to arrange for you to take some film shots at Mount Vernon Hospital, Northwood, Mddx.; this hospital is almost entirely devoted to cancer work, and has very modern facilities for both treatment and research.

If you will telephone his Secretary there, Miss Autin (Northwood 3281), she will arrange a convenient time for you to see him.

Yours sincerely,

B.M.Key.
