MOTOCROSS FOR GRAND PRIX OF HOLLAND IN ST. ANTHONIS

36 metres

With noise and clouds of dust the participants in the 500 cc race for the annual Grand Prix of Holland started for the first of the two manches.

Famous riders as Swedish Nilsson, the Belgians Baeten and Scaillet and the British veteran Draper.

The 30.000 spectators saw how easily the motocross-specialists handled their heavy machines on the accidented circuit.

John Draper proved that he was the best of all in this race, which counted for the world championship.

ASA Reue E J.N.

He won this exciting race, with Dutch ~~Steen~~ and Belgian Baeten as 2nd and 3th. 3rd.

The British motor-licen had again shaken his mane!
