EISENHOWER OUTLINES PEACE PLAN.

At its most important meeting for years, the U.N. General Assembly - Mr. Gromyko listening intently, heard President Eisenhower protest against Middle East aggression tactics.

"In most communities it is illegal to cry "Fire" in a crowded assembly. Should it not be considered serious international misconduct to manufacture a general war scare in an effort to achieve local political aims?

Pressure such as these will never be successfully practised against America, but they do create dangers which could affect each and everyone of us. That is why, I have asked for the privilege of again addressing you.

This world of individual nations is not going to be controlled by any one power or group of powers. This world is not going to be committed to anyone's ideology. Please believe me when I say that the dream of world domination by one power or of world conformity is an impossible dream.

We must, then, seek with new vigor, new initiative, the path to a peace based on the effective control of armaments, on economic governments and on the freedom of all peoples to be ruled by Governments of their choice. Only thus can we exercise the full capacity God has given us to enrich the lives of the individual human beings who are our ultimate concern, our responsibility and our strength.

In this memorable task there lies enough work and enough reward to satisfy the energies and ambitions of all leaders, everywhere. Thank you very much for your kind attention".
