

FLOWER FESTIVAL.

It's carnival time again, and San Remo, famous all the year round holiday resort on the Italian Riviera, held the usual flower procession. An enormous amount of preparation, artistic taste and humour has gone into the show. Nobody's too young to enjoy it.

Pieve, is the title of the number that won the Song Festival, just concluded at San Remo. It's an enterprising place, always something for the visitors to enjoy. What a chance for some daring character to stage a hold-up. But the only fighting was a battle of flowers.