

PRIME MINISTER MACMILLAN VISITS MOSCOW UNIVERSITY

The Rt. Honourable Harold MacMillan, Prime Minister of Great Britain, and his party paid a visit to the Moscow University on Lenin Hills on February the 23rd.

Academician Petrovsky, the Rector of the Moscow State University, welcomed the guests.

In token of his visit to the University, Academician Petrovsky presented the Prime Minister with the jubilee medal issued on the 200-th anniversary of the Moscow State University and a two-volume history of the University.

The British Prime Minister presented the Moscow University a book on the City of Oxford and four volumes of the works of Shakespeare.

Prime Minister MacMillan met with students and faculty members of the Moscow University and wished them happiness, prosperity and all the successes in the world.

The Soviet students and their teachers gave the British guests a hearty welcome.

6-452801

PRIME MINISTER MACMILLAN'S STAY IN MOSCOW

The Rt. Honourable Harold Macmillan, the Prime Minister of Great Britain, meets with Nikita Khrushchev, the Chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers, at the Kremlin on February the 23rd. During this meeting the two Prime Ministers continued to discuss matters of mutual interest. Anastas Mikoyan, First Deputy Chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers, Andrei Gromyko, the USSR Foreign Minister, and Yakov Malik, the Soviet Ambassador in Great Britain took part in the talk from the Soviet side; while Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and Sir D'Arcy Patrick Reilly, the British Ambassador in the USSR, took part from the British side.

1095501
In the morning on February the 23rd Prime Minister Macmillan calls on Sharaf Rashidov, Vice President of the USSR Supreme Soviet Presidium, at the Kremlin. The British Prime Minister
Harold Macmillan was accompanied by Foreign Secretary Selwyn
Lloyd and Sir Patrick Reilly, the British Ambassador in Moscow.