ROYAL VISIT TO ROME

Queen Mother Elizabeth of England and Princess Margaret arrived this afternoon at Rome's Ciampino Airport by Royal Air Force Comet 4, for an unformal visit as a Roman Holiday up to April 25th.

To welcome them were the Undersecretaries Russo and Felchi as representatives of the Premier and Foreign Minister, the secretary of the Presidency of Republic and the Ambassador Fracassi to represent Giovanni Gronchi, the Ambassador Clarke and the Heads of the Commonwealth Missions.

From the airport the Royal visitors ~~walked~~ were driven to the Welkensky Villa, where they will stay during their five-day Roman holiday.

Due to lack of time for the prompt shipment, more news are not available at present time. Please refer to press news.
