

JAPANESE FASHIONS ONE.

- 6-546301
- FIRST : 3 Six Japanese models are in Sydney for fashion parades, among them twenty-six year old Takako who wears a cotton and tetron sheath dress with balloon bow sleeves. The girls, the cloths and the background are typically
- SECOND : 4 Japanese ... but the styles are for the West. This one's called "Springtime in Kyoto". Madame Tsuneko Sakai, the designer, was a personal friend of Christian Dior.
- THIRD : ✓ Here's Takako again, this time in an ancient print in pure silk .... sheath dress and butterfly jacket. A touch of the Orient ... AND of Paris.
- CROWD : 6 The first show's in Mark Foy's Sydney store.
- FASHION : 7 Here's Harumi showing a Japanese version of separates. Rayon printed skirt, white blouse in vegetable colours.
- FASHION : 8 Baby of the show, Akiko, in "Blue Mood" ... a high-waisted kimono for western living.
- FASHION : 9 And this is Kiku Festival a two-piece suit in cotton. The colours are carrot and onion white, and the lantern hat was designed by Madame Sakai herself.
- FASHION : 10 Here's a beach style ... with the jacket printed in symbolic designs of the Japanese theatre.
- FASHION : ② And for high fashion, a pure silk organza dress with a theatre coat of gold lame and carrot silk. A gown to attract attention in ANY setting.
- THREE GIRLS: ① Japanese mannequins show how traditional eastern cloths can be used in western style.