

RODEO FOR THE SMALL-FRY!

Small fry's been watching so many cowboy pictures he just had'a get in the act. This is the junior rodeo at Salinas, California - with watchfob cowpokes taking out after those young steers like they were pardners from the cradle on. Pardners, did you say?

Maybe mother wishes she'd bought him that bicycle!

This is the spring season, all right. But some'r wondering if fall can be far behind.

There's no crying over spills. These little riders prove that on the ranch they learn to take it. He's all right - that's apparent. A lad with courage - that's for sure.
