PATHE NEWS 59/49

| ZERO IN GATE TITLE ENDS AT 52       CAMERA: MICKERS         1       G.V. PAN: FROM THE IRISH COAST AT CLIFDEN, CO. GALWAY TOTHE MEMORIAL WHICH HAS BEEN ERECTED IN MEMORY OFALCOCK AND BROWN       68 B         2       S.V. JOHN ALCOCK'S BROTHERS AND TWO NEPHEWS AT THE UNVEILINGCEREMONY       74         3       L.V. THE PLAQUE IS UNVEILED BY MR. SEAN LEMASS, DEPUTYPRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER FOR INDUSTRY AND COMMERCE       80         4       S.V. THE PLAQUE ON THE MEMORIAL WITH INSCRPTION ON IT       84         5       G.V. THE MEMORIAL WITH PEOPLE GATHERED ROUND       90         6       S.C.U. MR. TEAGUE WHO MET ALCOCK AND BROWN AFTER THEIR LANDINGAND WAS THE FIRST PERSON GET NEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMENTTO DONDON       94         7       L.V. PAN: ALCOCK AND BROWN'S VICKERS VINY BIPLANE TAXI-INGOUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWFOUNDLAND       104 V         8       G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF       104         9       L.V. THE PLANE TILITED ON HITS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGYLAND IN IRELAND       120 L         10       S.V. PAN: DITTO       136         11       S.V. PAN: DITTO       156         12       G.V. PAN: DITTO       156         13       S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFFTWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFFTWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFFTWO MEN TO SHAK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | FIRST ATLANTIC FLIGHT - 40TH ANNIVERSARY LIBRARY        |                                                     |                                                   |       |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|-------|--|
| THE MEMORIAL WHICH HAS BEEN ERECTED IN MEMORY OF       68 B         ALCOCK AND BROWN       68 B         2 S.V. JOHN ALCOCK'S BROTHERS AND TWO NEPHEWS AT THE UNVEILING       74         3 L.V. THE PLAQUE IS UNVEILED BY MR. SEAN LEMASS, DEPUTY       74         3 L.V. THE PLAQUE ON THE MEMORIAL WITH INSCRPTION ON IT       84         5 G.V. THE PLAQUE ON THE MEMORIAL WITH INSCRPTION ON IT       84         5 G.V. THE MEMORIAL WITH PEOPLE GATHERED ROUND       90         6 S.C.U. MR. TEAGUE WHO MET ALCOCK AND BROWN AFTER THEIR LANDINGAND WAS THE FIRST PERSON GET NEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMENTTO DONDON       94         7 L.V. PAN: ALCOCK AND BROWN'S VICKERS VINY BIPLANE TAXI-INGOUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWFOUNDLAND       104 V         8 G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF       107         120 L         10 S.V. PAN: DITTO       126         11 S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT       145         12 G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVEEUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THETWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT FOLICE KEEP THEM OFF       167 V         13 S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS       176         14 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT       181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | ZERO IN GATE TITLE ENDS AT 52 CAMERA: WICKERSBAYNES |                                                     |                                                   |       |  |
| CEREMONY       74         3       L.V. THE PLAQUE IS UNVEILED BY MR. SEAN LEMASS, DEPUTYPRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER FOR INDUSTRY AND COMMERCE 80         4       S.V. THE PLAQUE ON THE MEMORIAL WITH INSCRPTION ON IT       84         5       G.V. THE PLAQUE ON THE MEMORIAL WITH INSCRPTION ON IT       84         5       G.V. THE MEMORIAL WITH PEOPLE GATHERED ROUND       90         6       S.C.U. MR. TEAGUE WHO MET ALCOCK AND BROWN AFTER THEIR LANDINGAND WAS THE FIRST PERSON GET NEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMENTTO DONDON       94         7       L.V. PAN: ALCOCK AND BROWN'S VICKERS VIMY BIPLANE TAXI-INGOUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWPOUNDLAND       104 V         8       G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF       104 V         9       L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HIS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGYLAND IN IRELAND       120 L         10       S.V. PAN: DITTO       136         11       S.V. PAN: DITTO       136         12       G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVEEUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THETWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEF THEM OFF       167         13       S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS       176         14       S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT       181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | THE MEMO                                                | RIAL WHICH HAS BEEN ERI                             | LIFDEN, CO. GALWAY TOSCTED IN MEMORY OF       |       |  |
| PRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER FOR INDUSTRY AND COMMERCE 80         4       S.V. THE PLAQUE ON THE MEMORIAL WITH INSCRETION ON IT 84         5       G.V. THE MEMORIAL WITH PEOPLE GATHERED ROUND 90         6       S.C.U. MR. TEAGUE WHO MET ALCOCK AND BROWN AFTER THEIR LANDING AND WAS THE FIRST PERSON GET NEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMENT 70 DONDON 94         7       L.V. PAN: ALCOCK AND BROWN'S VICKERS VIMY BIPLANE TAKI-ING OUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWFOUNDLAND 101 V         8       G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF 101 V         8       G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF 101 V         9       L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HTS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGY LAND IN IRELAND 101 IRELAND 112 I.         10       S.V. PAN: DITTO 113 S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT 115         12       G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVE EUSTON STATUON BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THE TWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF 167 T         13       S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WIT |                                                         |                                                     | NEPHEWS AT THE UNVEIL                             |       |  |
| 5       G.V. THE MEMORIAL WITH PEOPLE GATHERED ROUND       90         6       S.C.U. MR. TEAGUE WHO MET ALCOCK AND BROWN AFTER THEIR LANDING AND WAS THE FIRST PERSON GET NEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMENT TO DONDON       94         7       L.V. PAN: ALCOCK AND BROWN'S VICKERS VIMY BIPLANE TAXI-ING OUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWFOUNDLAND       101 V         8       G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF       101 V         8       G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF       107         9       L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HIS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGY LAND IN IRELAND       120 L         10       S.V. PAN: DITTO       126         11       S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT       115         12       G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVE EUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THE TWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF       167         13       S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDING OVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS       176         14       S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT       181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 3 L.V. THE PLACPRIME MI                             | UE IS UNVEILED BY MR. SINISTER AND MINISTER FOR | SEAN LEMASS, DEPUTYR INDUSTRY AND COMMERE     | CE 80 |  |
| <ul> <li>6 S.C.U. MR. TEAGUE WHO MET ALCOCK AND EROWN AFTER THEIR LANDING AND WAS THE FIRST PERSON GET NEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMENT 194</li> <li>7 L.V. PAN: ALCOCK AND EROWN'S VICKERS VINY BIPLANE TAXI-ING OUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWFOUNDLAND 101 V</li> <li>8 G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF 101 V</li> <li>9 L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HIS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGY 120 L</li> <li>10 S.V. PAN: DITTO 126 136 14</li> <li>11 S.V. ALCOCK AND EROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT 115</li> <li>12 G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVE EUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THE TWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF 167 13</li> <li>S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDING OVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS 176</li> <li>14 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND EROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT 181</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 4 S.V. THE PLAC                                         | UE ON THE MEMORIAL WITH                             | I INSCRPTION ON IT                                | 84    |  |
| AND WAS THE FIRST PERSON GET NEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMENTTO DONDON 947 L.V. PAN: ALCOCK AND BROWN'S VICKERS VIMY BIPLANE TAXI-INGOUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWFOUNDLAND 104 V8 G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFFSLIP PAN9 L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HTS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGYLAND IN IRELAND 10 HTS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGY120 L10 S.V. PAN: DITTO 12611 S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT 14512 G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVEEUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THETWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF 16713 S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS 17614 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT 181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 5 G.V. THE MEMO                                         | RIAL WITH PEOPLE GATHE                              | RED ROUND                                         | 90    |  |
| OUT FOR TAKE OFF FROM NEWFOUNDLAND       101 V         8 G.V. PAN: THE PLANE TAKING OFF       107         SLIP PAN       SLIP PAN         9 L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HTS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGY       120 L         10 S.V. PAN: DITTO       136         11 S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT       145         12 G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVE EUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THE TWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF       167         13 S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDING OVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS       176         14 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT       181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | AND WA                                                  | AS THE FIRST PERSON GET                             | D BROWN AFTER THEIR LANNEWS OF THE ACHIEVEMEN | NT    |  |
| SLIP PAN         9       L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HTS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGY         10       S.V. PAN: DITTO         11       S.V. PAN: DITTO         12       G.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT         12       G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVE EUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THE         13       S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDING OVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS         14       S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                         |                                                     |                                                   |       |  |
| <ul> <li>9 L.V. THE PLANE TILTED ON HTS NOSE AFTER LANDING ON BOGGYLAND IN IRELAND</li> <li>10 S.V. PAN: DITTO</li> <li>11 S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT</li> <li>12 G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVEEUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THETWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF</li> <li>13 S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS</li> <li>14 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT</li> <li>181</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 8 G.V. PAN: TH                                          | IE PLANE TAKING OFF                                 |                                                   | (10)  |  |
| LAND IN IRELAND       120 L         10 S.V. PAN: DITTO       136         11 S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT       145         12 G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVE EUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THE TWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF       167 V         13 S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDING OVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS       176         14 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT       181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | SLIP PAN                                                |                                                     |                                                   |       |  |
| 11       S.V. ALCOCK AND BROWN SEATED AFTER THEIR FLIGHT       145         12       G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVEEUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THETWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF       167         13       S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS       176         14       S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT       181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                         |                                                     | TER LANDING ON BOGGY                              | 120 L |  |
| <ul> <li>12 G.V. MASS CROWDS IN THE STREET AS ALCOCK AND BROWN LEAVEEUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THETWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF 167</li> <li>13 S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS 176</li> <li>14 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT 181</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 10 S.V. PAN: I                                          | )ITTO                                               |                                                   | 136   |  |
| EUSTON STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE TRYING TO GET TO THETWO MEN TO SHAKE THEIR HANDS BUT POLICE KEEP THEM OFF 16713 S.V. ARTHUR BROWN WITH TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL BAG BEFORE HANDINGOVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS 17614 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT 181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 11 S.V. ALCOCK                                          | AND BROWN SEATED AFTER                              | THEIR FLIGHT                                      | 145   |  |
| OVER TO POST OFFICE OFFICIALS17614 S.V. THE ALCOCK AND BROWN STATUE AT LONDON AIRPORT181                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | EUSTON                                                  | STATION BY CAR, PEOPLE                              | TRYING TO GET TO THE                              | 0     |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                         |                                                     |                                                   |       |  |
| 15 L.V. COMET IV AIRLINER ON THE TARMAC AT LONDON AIRPORT 189 L                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 14 S.V. THE ALC                                         | OCK AND BROWN STATUE AS                             | LONDON AIRPORT                                    | 181   |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 15 L.V. COMET 1                                         | V AIRLINER ON THE TARMA                             | AC AT LONDON AIRPORT                              | 189 L |  |

LENGTH WITH TITLE 144 ft

blifden, Co. Galway leer. Canversaries 1-15 av. Record Hights , Strents - Notifion - Lond-Av. Record any Menonals Aldgs. Momentes, Menonals * Statues - 1-6. 5-17-2 3500 14. At 6 hrs 3500

ph . Lewass, Mr. Dean Jeague, Mr. F.H. Jeague, Mr. F.H. Jog 8474