BRAVE BOY REWARDED

59/52

Fittenerief Park, Dumfriesline, is a perpetual reminder of the Town's greatest son. Andrew Carnegie. The Hero Fund he endowed is administrated here. And who better to profit by it than 14-year-old Brian Gibbons. He arrived at the offices of the Trust to receive the honour awarded to him. The Trustees Chairman Mr. Buchanan, presented him with the Hero's Fund Bronze Medallion, for Andrew Carnegie believed bravery to be one of the highest virtues.

Brian's home, Southall, Middlesex, on the fatal morning last September. A blazing aircraft crashed into it and set it on fire. Brian seized his 5-year old nephew Tommy and dropped him to rescourers below. He was badly burned himself. Steel King Andrew Carnegie left part of his vast fortune for the rewarding of brave people. Few recipients can have been more heroic than Brian Gibbons.
