

BRUSH FIRE RAGES NEAR HOLLYWOOD

54 A brush fire in the Hollywood hills rages out of control.

At least 38 homes are destroyed - more than a square mile of land is laid waste as the blaze roars on for more than six hours before firemen gain the upper hand.

Along Mulholland Drive, around Laurel Canyon, the fire drives scores of persons from their homes. Luckily, only three minor injuries are reported. Police suspect an arsonist deliberately ignited the tinder-dry brush in this suburban area where a number of people from the movie industry have made their homes.
