

59/60BULLS WIN ALL BOUTS.

Salinas Rodeo mustered the cream of the Californian dare-devil talent, trying to stay on board Brahma Bulls which had the opposite idea. Odds on the bull every time. Bull Number Two, rarin's to go. Once in the arena, the animal seemed to think it was in the Grand National. Just as the rider got the feel of it, he was requested to leave. So along came the clown, to turn the attention elsewhere. Those clowns are brave men.

Here's a bull that's all wound up. But it's no merry-go-round. Stop the world, he wants to get off!!
