

108FF801

INCOM 1798

BEAFSTEAK FESTIVAL 76

first

Here we are at Certona in Tuscany for the ~~wxwkwkwkwk~~ beefsteak festival. Of course in the beefsteak festival is not missing a flood of wine, of the world-known "Chianti" wine; it is well completed with the savoury peaches from the Val di Chiana orchards.

1300 were in the whole the over one-pound beefsteaks; they were grilled by one-ton oak-coal over a huge gridiron purposely built and conceived by the local blacksmith. More than 10 Kg; salt and 100 kg oil were required for the grilling.

Thus there was plenty of meat for all.... enough for everybody.... yet the last one was too late.... and had to adjust himself with ... a fried egg.