

FLASHY SKATES: THE ICE HAS THEM!

Twentieth anniversary of a colorful show! Members of the great Ice Capades cast skate around a cake, as the production is readied in Atlantic City for a national tour! That's lovely German figure skating champion, Helga, in action.

Sensational Ronnie Robertson caps his act with a whirling exit.

A sparkling Salute to the Mounties by the ensemble.

On one finger, watch! Bill Henry, Junior, balances on minimum support from his father. They're the only father-and-son team on skates - and what a team!

This is the Ice Capades' lovable Shaggy Dog.

And, to top it off, a pair of clowns you wouldn't want in your kitchen!
