

PRINCE RAINIER AND PRINCESS GRACE ON STATE VISIT
Positive developed/ 36 meters - 170 ft

Although in Paris for the past few days on a private visit with their two children, Princess Caroline and Prince Albert, Prince Rainier of Monaco and Princess Grace, the former screen star Grace Kelly, began to-day their formal visit as guests of the French Government and President of the Republic.

To-day they were received officially at the Elysée for a formal luncheon with President de Gaulle. It is the first time for many years that a Monaco sovereign is in a state visit in Paris with his wife.

After luncheon, photographers and cameramen were allowed to make pictures in the Elysée gardens.

In the afternoon, after a short rest Princess Grace is visiting a hospital where Poliomyelitis victims are taken care of in Garches, accompanied by Madame de Gaulle. This evening a State Reception is given at the Elysée in honor of the Monaco Raigning young and lovely couple.

Their official visit in Paris will continue until Wednesday.
