

SOVIET PEOPLE DEMONSTRATE ON RED SQUARE

NOVEMBER 7 1959

Moscow...

A multithousand demonstration takes place on Red Square in Honour of the 42nd anniversary of the 1917 October Revolution. The demonstrators cordially greet the leaders of the Soviet Communist Party and Government and Soviet and foreign guests who arrived here for the celebrations.

The holiday procession is getting more and more colourful... the giant figure VII, standing for the Seven Year Plan, and other transparencies speak of the achievements attained during the first year of the Plan.

A model of the cosmic rocket, directed to the depths of the Universe, and the image of the Moon sing praises to the Soviet scientists opening the road to Cosmos.

The desire of the Soviet people to live in peace and friendship with all nations of the world is expressed in the single Russian word "MIR" - peace - which appears here there throughout the holiday demonstration on Red Square.
