

CHUVALO K. Os. DURELLE.

George Chivalo (white trunks) versus Yvon Durelle. They fought in Toronto for the heavyweight championship of Canada. A left hook had Durelle in trouble quite early. He's the Empire Light Heavyweight title holder, giving away far more poundage than he could spare against 15-stone Chivalo. But Durelle's always been as game as they come, believing attack is the best defence.

Durelle's down again - the fifth time.

Round twelve turned out to be the last one. Chivalo sent him to the canvas, and this time not even Durelle's courage could make him beat the count. But he had made Chivalo go all out to retain the title of heavyweight champion of Canada. And after that stirring bout Durelle announced his retirement; too old at thirty to stay on top. Meanwhile, his conqueror, Chivalo thinks of more triumphs ahead.
