

WINGED SHIP

62.

The weather on the Volga was not favourable for film shooting, but nevertheless we succeeded in making several shots of this unusual ship, which the shipbuilders of the city of Gorky call "meteor". Its contours do really remind you sooner of a cosmic ship rather than any of the ships sailing from the opposite direction. The Meteor is intended for 150 passengers and it can develop a speed of up to eighty knots an hour.

*Movietone wants this story
Arrange release date.*