

OWL DINES NIGHTLY.

The best restaurant in Misterwijk has a patron with a date at six every evening. Mainbeer is unfailingly prompt and collects his special dish, raw chicken. An unusual taste, but the customer's always right. The reason? Leo, the only owl that dines in a restaurant every night. And he's always punctual.

The only thing the human customer's afraid of is that one of these days Leo will leave a tip!
