SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Star of the racing circuits in 1959 the Cooper Climax, winner of five of the eight major grands prix, opens it's 1960 season as the star attraction of the first Annual Racing Car Show at the Old Hall of the Royal Horticultural Society, Westminster, which opens on January 2nd, 1960.

The Championship winning Cooper will be in the best possible company the World Sports Car Championship winner, the DBR1 Aston Martin, too will be there as well as the 1958 Vanwall that won the Constructor's title that year ... they will be surrounded by a glittering display of racing and sports cars of every shape and size.

In addition to the twenty-two cars on exhibition the Show includes stands devoted to the most comprehensive display of speed equipment ever seen under one roof; visitors to the Show will also be able to examine in close detail some of the new Formula Junior cars for the coming season. The new Cooper will be there ... the new rear-engined Lotus will be there ... and the Lola ... the Elva, and the Gemini - all new cars for the formula of the future, Formula Junior.

So make and keep your New Year Resolution to visit the first Annual Racing Car Show. There's something there for everyone.
