

AMIENS HAS A RIOT.

30,000 peasant farmers gathered in Amiens in what they intended to be a mass protest against their poor standard of living. French townfolk are better off, but the farmers say they're ten per cent worse off. Some hotheads turned it all into a riot.

Three hours later 200 were injured, eighty arrested, and the original purpose of the demonstration largely forgotten.