King Mohammed Returning to Rabat

The King of Morocco returned to Rabat after a 30-day tour of Arab nations.

At the airport delegations and officials waited to greet their Sovereign. Thousands lined the streets of Rabat and gave the King a jubilant welcome home.

On the Friday after his return the King again rode in a traditional ceremony from the Palace to the near-by mosque. It was a colourful procession and the crowd was exstastic in its jubilation at the first public appearance of their Sovereign after his long absence.
