

FIRST PICTURES OF JAPANESE ROYAL BABY

The Imperial Household Hospital in Tokyo - and first pictures of eighteen-day-old Prince Hiro, in the arms of his nurse, as Princess Michiko brings her baby home. First born of Crown Prince Akihito and his commoner wife, the Royal Baby, whose birth touched off celebrations throughout Japan, is now in his mother's arms. Under the present order of a democratic Nippon, there is no surprise when the cameraman is permitted to move close to the car - the better to show us the Imperial bundle of joy. A welcome, and happy event in the new Japan.