STORY : PRESIDENT NASSER IN INDIA

LOCATION : NEW DELHI MARCH 30, 1960

PLUS X. 300 DAYLIGHT & Artificial Light

President Nasser started his first day in India by visiting the Gandhi Memorial where he laid a wreath in memory of the great leader of India.

President Nasser was given a Civic Reception by the citizens of Delhi after which he found the opportunity of addressing the huge crowd which had collected to witness the ceremony.

Mr. Nehru also ~~xxx~~ spoke after President Nasser.

In his speech President Nasser spoke about the various difficulties which Egypt had to face during the past few years. He appreciated the help of India during the time of great crises for Egypt. President Nasser spoke about his determination to keep Egypt free of all foreign basis. He further said that the goal of India and Egypt was the same which led towards peace, prosperity and the eradication of poverty and God Willing this goal would surely be achieved during the life time.

Mr. Nehru addressed the crowd by saying that Nations should not ask for help to other nations at the time of attack. It is no use crying loudly when one is being attacked but it is better to face the odds and meet the situation. Foreign help makes new nations depend on others and takes away the incentive for advance. Once dependent one always remains independent. Mr. Nehru further said that the policy of India was Friendship towards all. Even those nations which looked towards India as its enemy, were in the eyes of India Friends of India.
