

10-F81P01

PATHE JOURNAL

Paris, April 11. 1960

BRUSSELS AUTO GRAND PRIX

This race fought in two parts, each of 35 laps of the Brussels racetrack, totaling 159,320 Kilometers saw 18 of the best pilots at the start.

It is an international event and this years' race was won by Australia's Jack Brabham on Cooper. (Nr. 2)

The first part of the race was won by Stirling Moss (Porsche Nr.10) but he took a bad start in the second part and made only third, which was very good as in the course of the race he had two incidents... the Frenchman TRIMIGNANT on Cooper Nr. 22 made second.

~~TRIMIGNANT~~ Sweden's Joakim Bonnier on Porsche Nr.12 made a very good race but unhappily had to stop due to engine troubles.

Seven countries were represented in the event; Britain, Belgium Italy, France, Germany and... Scotland, with Ron Flockhart.