

HOME WITH £100,000.

Stanley Wilson, £100,000 Pools Winner, was back home, with wife, children and in-laws; and in Hall, he was bigger news than the Fish War. One-month-old Baby Allen was the only calm one. At the other end of the family, George and Alice Stevens were overjoyed. That £100,000 cheque is going to change all their lives.

Stanley's boss welcomed the lucky 40-year-old joiner, and all his workmates gave him a pat-on-the-back. Stan earned about £12-a-week here, but the next item was to adjourn to the local for drinks all round. It was fabulous. He got 24 points, and £100,000 for a penny. That's the way to invest money. Win the Pools and the Government can Squeeze credit till they're blue in the fact.
