

QUEEN MOTHER IN RHODESIA.

Salisbury Airport was set for a warm welcome to a very special visitor. From London, to Southern Rhodesia, came the Queen Mother, now completing her flight of nearly 6,000 miles.

The Governor General, Lord Dalhousie, received her, while Chief Chinyamora and his wife awaited their turn to be presented. Her Majesty is visiting the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland to open the Kariba Dam. Now began the ten-mile drive from the airport to Government House. In Salisbury (The Federation Capital) 60,000 people cheered as she drove past. They were renewing acquaintance with a most gracious and well loved lady.
